

Published by the World Publishing Company.

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 7.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

(Including Postage)

PER MONTH.....$6.00

PER YEAR.....$36.00

Vol. 82.....No. 10,013

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second-class matter.

1ST BRANCH OFFICES: WORLD UPTOWN OF FIFTH—1867 BROADWAY, between 21st and 22d Streets. NEW YORK.
BROOKLYN—1200 FLORIDA ST., HARLEM MICHIGAN—1200 BROADWAY, between 15th and 16th Sts.; Advertisements at 237 East 115th St.
PHILADELPHIA, PA.—LEADER BUILDING, 119 FOURTH, WASHINGTON—110 14th St.
LONDON OFFICE—32 COCKEREL ST., TRAFAL-GAR SQUARE.

The Evening World Prints Associated Press News.

FOUR MURDERERS DEAD.

The law has had its way with the lives of Murderers SLOCUM, SMILER, WOOD and JUNIOR. These four men have died in the electric chair.As a matter of law and justice, putting pauper for a moment the consideration of electrocution as a method of taking capital criminals out of the world, it is fortunate that these sentences have at last been carried out. So long had the prescribed process been delayed by juggling with phrases and provisions of law on the part of legal experts that the statutes covering the crime of murder and its punishment had become subjects of mockery and derision.It actually seemed as if the State had lost the power to dispose of its most dangerous criminals. The spirit of murder was fostered and encouraged by this appearance of affairs. To-day's events constitute a final ghastly victory for the law, in so far as it called for the death of the condemned men, which should go far towards restoring the old and intended effect of deterring men from taking the lives of fellow-men.The artists who have already volunteered are Mine, Luckstone Meyers, of Gilmore's scenes; the famous Letham Quarry, Jenny C. Wilder, sister of Marshall P. Wilder; Frank Lawton, the whistler; Lucy, the famous little Johnnie Cheever; Master Walter, the pianist; H. A. Hart, the artist; Mrs. E. D.
Sherrill, soprano; and the popular and charming Marguerite St. Jean in Jerome K.
Jerome's comedy of "Barbara," with Whitem
Shannon, of Charles Frohman's Company; F.
W. Brooks and Alice Berthmar.Any one whose contribution to the Sick Baby Fund is not acknowledged in these columns will confer a favor by notifying the Editor of "The Evening World."

BABES NEED HELP

And the Free Doctor Fund Must Bring It to Them.Be One of Many to Add Your Mite to This Great Work.Money, Food and Clothing Needed for the Tots.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Previous's acknowledged.....	1,358.62
Manhattan Club Employees.....	11.00
Brooklyn.....	1.00
Coney Island.....	1.00
A. N. W. ....	10
Florence, of Sea Cliff.....	1.00
Morristown.....	1.00
Edith R. Black.....	2.50
Harry and George Bauché.....	1.00
E. S. Ward.....	2.00
George Golden.....	1.00
Peter Wallace.....	1.00

All contributions sent to "The Evening World" office for the Sick Baby Fund should be directed to Cashier, New York "World," Pulitzer Building.
Packages containing clothes, &c., should be addressed to Mrs. Roberts, 36 West Thirty-fifth street.Any one whose contribution to the Sick Baby Fund is not acknowledged in
these columns will confer a favor by
notifying the Editor of "The Evening World."

FOR THE SICK BABIES.

Entertainment to be Held at Far Rockaway Thursday.

CHANGES AT THE THEATRES.

New Bills at Tony Pastor's and Koster & Bial's Houses.The Madison Square Garden Amphitheatre is beginning to cast away all the starch and trills that fettered its usefulness during its earlier existence. It is rapidly becoming free and easy, and success, consequently, stares it in the face. New Yorkers are everywhere confronted by the largeness of grim conventionality.
The amphitheatre is beginning to strike out for itself. Last night the first of the series of Theodore Thoreau's new well-concerts was given, and a gaudy gathering of people applauded an excellent concert, while the men smoked and drank and the women sipped and talked. A comprehensive programme of music and beverages was offered.
The former started at Berlin and meandered through to Moscow; the latter was brought in from the provinces.Theatricals are now the original attraction of the "county fair," and several others, with Mark W. Davis as stage manager, will follow. The curtain will open on the grand masque, and after the entertainment a top will be given.Puritans among the visitors who are working hard to bring about the success of the entertainment are Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Downey, Mrs. I. Jacobsohn, Dr. D. Levy, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Seely, Mrs. Chas. Fisher, A. F. Treacher and his family, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hendrick and his family, Mrs. Miles O'Brien, Commissioner Gilroy
and family, and host of others will be there.The artist who has already volunteered are Mine, Luckstone Meyers, of Gilmore's scenes; the famous Letham Quarry, Jenny C. Wilder, sister of Marshall P. Wilder; Frank Lawton, the whistler; Lucy, the little Johnnie Cheever; Master Walter, the
pianist; H. A. Hart, the artist; Mrs. E. D.
Sherrill, soprano; and the popular and
charming Marguerite St. Jean in Jerome K.
Jerome's comedy of "Barbara," with Whitem
Shannon, of Charles Frohman's Company; F.
W. Brooks and Alice Berthmar.Any one whose contribution to the Sick Baby Fund is not acknowledged in
these columns will confer a favor by
notifying the Editor of "The Evening World."The Madison Square Garden Amphitheatre
is beginning to cast away all the starch and
trills that fettered its usefulness during its
earlier existence. It is rapidly becoming free
and easy, and success, consequently, stares it
in the face. New Yorkers are everywhere
confronted by the largeness of grim conventionality.
The amphitheatre is beginning to strike out for itself. Last night the first of the series of Theodore Thoreau's new well-
concerts was given, and a gaudy gathering of
people applauded an excellent concert, while
the men smoked and drank and the women
sipped and talked. A comprehensive programme of music and beverages was offered.
The former started at Berlin and meandered
through to Moscow; the latter was
brought in from the provinces.Theatricals are now the original
attraction of the "county fair," and several others, with Mark W. Davis as stage manager,
will follow. The curtain will open on
the grand masque, and after the entertainment a top will be given.Puritans among the visitors who are working hard to bring about the success of the
entertainment are Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Downey, Mrs. I. Jacobsohn, Dr. D. Levy, Mr. and
Mrs. J. H. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Seely, Mrs. Chas. Fisher, A. F. Treacher and his family, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hendrick and his
family, Mrs. Miles O'Brien, Commissioner Gilroy
and family, and host of others will be there.The artist who has already volunteered are Mine, Luckstone Meyers, of Gilmore's scenes;the famous Letham Quarry, Jenny C. Wilder, sister of Marshall P. Wilder; Frank Lawton, the whistler; Lucy, the
little Johnnie Cheever; Master Walter, the
pianist; H. A. Hart, the artist; Mrs. E. D.
Sherrill, soprano; and the popular and
charming Marguerite St. Jean in Jerome K.
Jerome's comedy of "Barbara," with Whitem
Shannon, of Charles Frohman's Company; F.
W. Brooks and Alice Berthmar.Any one whose contribution to the Sick Baby Fund is not acknowledged in
these columns will confer a favor by
notifying the Editor of "The Evening
World."The Madison Square Garden Amphitheatre
is beginning to cast away all the starch and
trills that fettered its usefulness during its
earlier existence. It is rapidly becoming free
and easy, and success, consequently, stares it
in the face. New Yorkers are everywhere
confronted by the largeness of grim conventionality.
The amphitheatre is beginning to strike out for itself. Last night the first of the series of Theodore Thoreau's new well-
concerts was given, and a gaudy gathering of
people applauded an excellent concert, while
the men smoked and drank and the women
sipped and talked. A comprehensive programme of music and beverages was offered.
The former started at Berlin and meandered
through to Moscow; the latter was
brought in from the provinces.Theatricals are now the original
attraction of the "county fair," and several others, with Mark W. Davis as stage manager,
will follow. The curtain will open on
the grand masque, and after the entertainment a top will be given.Puritans among the visitors who are working hard to bring about the success of the
entertainment are Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Downey, Mrs. I. Jacobsohn, Dr. D. Levy, Mr. and
Mrs. J. H. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Seely, Mrs. Chas. Fisher, A. F. Treacher and his family, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hendrick and his
family, Mrs. Miles O'Brien, Commissioner Gilroy
and family, and host of others will be there.The artist who has already volunteered are Mine, Luckstone Meyers, of Gilmore's scenes;the famous Letham Quarry, Jenny C. Wilder, sister of Marshall P. Wilder; Frank Lawton, the whistler; Lucy, the
little Johnnie Cheever; Master Walter, the
pianist; H. A. Hart, the artist; Mrs. E. D.
Sherrill, soprano; and the popular and
charming Marguerite St. Jean in Jerome K.
Jerome's comedy of "Barbara," with Whitem
Shannon, of Charles Frohman's Company; F.
W. Brooks and Alice Berthmar.Any one whose contribution to the Sick Baby Fund is not acknowledged in
these columns will confer a favor by
notifying the Editor of "The Evening
World."The Madison Square Garden Amphitheatre
is beginning to cast away all the starch and
trills that fettered its usefulness during its
earlier existence. It is rapidly becoming free
and easy, and success, consequently, stares it
in the face. New Yorkers are everywhere
confronted by the largeness of grim conventionality.
The amphitheatre is beginning to strike out for itself. Last night the first of the series of Theodore Thoreau's new well-
concerts was given, and a gaudy gathering of
people applauded an excellent concert, while
the men smoked and drank and the women
sipped and talked. A comprehensive programme of music and beverages was offered.
The former started at Berlin and meandered
through to Moscow; the latter was
brought in from the provinces.Theatricals are now the original
attraction of the "county fair," and several others, with Mark W. Davis as stage manager,
will follow. The curtain will open on
the grand masque, and after the entertainment a top will be given.Puritans among the visitors who are working hard to bring about the success of the
entertainment are Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Downey, Mrs. I. Jacobsohn, Dr. D. Levy, Mr. and
Mrs. J. H. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Seely, Mrs. Chas. Fisher, A. F. Treacher and his family, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hendrick and his
family, Mrs. Miles O'Brien, Commissioner Gilroy
and family, and host of others will be there.The artist who has already volunteered are Mine, Luckstone Meyers, of Gilmore's scenes;the famous Letham Quarry, Jenny C. Wilder, sister of Marshall P. Wilder; Frank Lawton, the whistler; Lucy, the
little Johnnie Cheever; Master Walter, the
pianist; H. A. Hart, the artist; Mrs. E. D.
Sherrill, soprano; and the popular and
charming Marguerite St. Jean in Jerome K.
Jerome's comedy of "Barbara," with Whitem
Shannon, of Charles Frohman's Company; F.
W. Brooks and Alice Berthmar.Any one whose contribution to the Sick Baby Fund is not acknowledged in
these columns will confer a favor by
notifying the Editor of "The Evening
World."The Madison Square Garden Amphitheatre
is beginning to cast away all the starch and
trills that fettered its usefulness during its
earlier existence. It is rapidly becoming free
and easy, and success, consequently, stares it
in the face. New Yorkers are everywhere
confronted by the largeness of grim conventionality.
The amphitheatre is beginning to strike out for itself. Last night the first of the series of Theodore Thoreau's new well-
concerts was given, and a gaudy gathering of
people applauded an excellent concert, while
the men smoked and drank and the women
sipped and talked. A comprehensive programme of music and beverages was offered.
The former started at Berlin and meandered
through to Moscow; the latter was
brought in from the provinces.Theatricals are now the original
attraction of the "county fair," and several others, with Mark W. Davis as stage manager,
will follow. The curtain will open on
the grand masque, and after the entertainment a top will be given.Puritans among the visitors who are working hard to bring about the success of the
entertainment are Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Downey, Mrs. I. Jacobsohn, Dr. D. Levy, Mr. and
Mrs. J. H. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Seely, Mrs. Chas. Fisher, A. F. Treacher and his family, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hendrick and his
family, Mrs. Miles O'Brien, Commissioner Gilroy
and family, and host of others will be there.The artist who has already volunteered are Mine, Luckstone Meyers, of Gilmore's scenes;the famous Letham Quarry, Jenny C. Wilder, sister of Marshall P. Wilder; Frank Lawton, the whistler; Lucy, the
little Johnnie Cheever; Master Walter, the
pianist; H. A. Hart, the artist; Mrs. E. D.
Sherrill, soprano; and the popular and
charming Marguerite St. Jean in Jerome K.
Jerome's comedy of "Barbara," with Whitem
Shannon, of Charles Frohman's Company; F.
W. Brooks and Alice Berthmar.Any one whose contribution to the Sick Baby Fund is not acknowledged in
these columns will confer a favor by
notifying the Editor of "The Evening
World."The Madison Square Garden Amphitheatre
is beginning to cast away all the starch and
trills that fettered its usefulness during its
earlier existence. It is rapidly becoming free
and easy, and success, consequently, stares it
in the face. New Yorkers are everywhere
confronted by the largeness of grim conventionality.
The amphitheatre is beginning to strike out for itself. Last night the first of the series of Theodore Thoreau's new well-
concerts was given, and a gaudy gathering of
people applauded an excellent concert, while
the men smoked and drank and the women
sipped and talked. A comprehensive programme of music and beverages was offered.
The former started at Berlin and meandered
through to Moscow; the latter was
brought in from the provinces.Theatricals are now the original
attraction of the "county fair," and several others, with Mark W. Davis as stage manager,
will follow. The curtain will open on
the grand masque, and after the entertainment a top will be given.Puritans among the visitors who are working hard to bring about the success of the
entertainment are Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Downey, Mrs. I. Jacobsohn, Dr. D. Levy, Mr. and
Mrs. J. H. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Seely, Mrs. Chas. Fisher, A. F. Treacher and his family, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hendrick and his
family, Mrs. Miles O'Brien, Commissioner Gilroy
and family, and host of others will be there.The artist who has already volunteered are Mine, Luckstone Meyers, of Gilmore's scenes;the famous Letham Quarry, Jenny C. Wilder, sister of Marshall P. Wilder; Frank Lawton, the whistler; Lucy, the
little Johnnie Cheever; Master Walter, the
pianist; H. A. Hart, the artist; Mrs. E. D.
Sherrill, soprano; and the popular and
charming Marguerite St. Jean in Jerome K.
Jerome's comedy of "Barbara," with Whitem
Shannon, of Charles Frohman's Company; F.
W. Brooks and Alice Berthmar.Any one whose contribution to the Sick Baby Fund is not acknowledged in
these columns will confer a favor by
notifying the Editor of "The Evening
World."The Madison Square Garden Amphitheatre
is beginning to cast away all the starch and
trills that fettered its usefulness during its
earlier existence. It is rapidly becoming free
and easy, and success, consequently, stares it
in the face. New Yorkers are everywhere
confronted by the largeness of grim conventionality.
The amphitheatre is beginning to strike out for itself. Last night the first of the series of Theodore Thoreau's new well-
concerts was given, and a gaudy gathering of
people applauded an excellent concert, while
the men smoked and drank and the women
sipped and talked. A comprehensive programme of music and beverages was offered.
The former started at Berlin and meandered
through to Moscow; the latter was
brought in from the provinces.Theatricals are now the original
attraction of the "county fair," and several others, with Mark W. Davis as stage manager,
will follow. The curtain will open on
the grand masque, and after the entertainment a top will be given.Puritans among the visitors who are working hard to bring about the success of the
entertainment are Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Downey, Mrs. I. Jacobsohn, Dr. D. Levy, Mr. and
Mrs. J. H. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Seely, Mrs. Chas. Fisher, A. F. Treacher and his family, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hendrick and his
family, Mrs. Miles O'Brien, Commissioner Gilroy
and family, and host of others will be there.The artist who has already volunteered are Mine, Luckstone Meyers, of Gilmore's scenes;the famous Letham Quarry, Jenny C. Wilder, sister of Marshall P. Wilder; Frank Lawton, the whistler; Lucy, the
little Johnnie Cheever; Master Walter, the
pianist; H. A. Hart, the artist; Mrs. E. D.
Sherrill, soprano; and the popular and
charming Marguerite St. Jean in Jerome K.
Jerome's comedy of